THE Lord is King: applaud ye Gentiles. Life has conquered death, the Cross has vanquished hell. Lord have mercy on us. The Heir has borne the punishment of the servant. Praise to Thee, O Christ. That corner stone, rejected by the enemy, the God-man Jesus, becomes the great problem of the world. Lord have mercy on us. Why do the nations rave? Let error stop! Praise to Thee, O Christ. Thou Who feedest with Thine own Flesh those whom Thou hast redeemed; Thou Who enrichest our lips with Thine rosy Blood: Lord, have mercy on us. Grant us the joys of never-ending Easter. Praise to Thee O, Christ.
